

European Association for Business and Commerce (EABC)

INTERSHIP PROGRAM 2026

ADVOCACY INTERN

The European Association for Business and Commerce (EABC) is seeking a full-time Advocacy Intern to strengthen our advocacy efforts, support the interests of our Working Group members, and expand our outreach to relevant stakeholders. The selected candidate will work directly with the EABC Policy Manager.

About Us:

The European Association for Business and Commerce (EABC), based in Bangkok, Thailand, serves as the voice of European businesses in Thailand. EABC works to facilitate market access for European businesses in Thailand while promoting the country as a key destination for trade and investment. We advocate for our members' interests, support European businesses, and help strengthen Thailand's position as an attractive partner for European trade and investment.

About the internship program

- Starting date: October 2026
- Duration: 3 months
- Reports to: Policy Manager

Key Responsibilities:

- Facilitate engagement with various stakeholders, including government agencies, the European Delegation, embassies, businesses, chambers of commerce, and international organisations.
- Organise meetings for EABC's Working Groups and prepare relevant documents to support advocacy efforts and build consensus among members.
- Prepare advocacy materials on issues of interest for internal use and external publication.
- Represent EABC at meetings, conferences, networking events, and webinars.
- Support the publication of advocacy activities and materials through social media channels.
- Provide day-to-day administrative and communication support to the Policy Manager and the Operations Director.

Expected Deliverables

- Develop 2–3 advocacy research papers or policy briefs on assigned regulatory or economic issues relevant to EABC's Working Groups.
- Prepare at least one stakeholder mapping or policy monitoring report to support EABC's advocacy activities.
- Draft advocacy materials, such as meeting briefs, or position paper summaries, for internal review and external engagement.

Minimum Criteria:

- Bachelor's degree in business, law, political and social sciences, or related fields.
- Fresh graduates with no more than two years of experience are encouraged to apply.
- Knowledge and interest in economics, politics, and law.
- Excellent written, verbal, and presentation skills in English.
- Experience working with government agencies is an advantage but not required.
- Comfortable working in multicultural and international environments.
- Able to commit full-time at the EABC office for a minimum of three months.

Application Process

Interested candidates are invited to submit:

- A CV or resume in English (maximum two pages)
- A short writing sample (maximum 300 words) summarising a recent economic, regulatory, or political development in Thailand

Important: Please include the subject line “Advocacy Internship Application – [Your Full Name]” in your email application.

Applications should be sent to office@eabc-thailand.org by 9 October 2026.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
